

MALTON GRAMMAR SCHOOL

OLD MALTONIAN ASSOCIATION

Dear Old Scholar,

I am writing to invite your attention to the Annual Reunion Dinner and Dance, which is to be held at Bowers Restaurant, Malton, on the evening of Friday, January 3rd, 1958.

All old scholars (whether members of the Association or not), their husbands, wives, fiancés or friends are cordially welcome. We are making a big effort to extend the scope of this function and in 1956 we reached the record figure of 120 old scholars at the Dinner, while last year we achieved the hundred mark in the teeth of petrol rationing. We confidently ask for your support.

The Dinner will begin at 7.30 p.m. and we shall begin to gather from 7 p.m. Dancing will start at 9.30 p.m. and go on until 2 p.m. There will be a licensed bar from 7 p.m. to 1 a.m. The guest of honour this year is Miss Lucy Taylor, who was a popular member of staff from 1938 to 1946. Other prominent old scholars will be proposing or responding to toasts.

Tickets can be purchased from the following, at a cost of 12/- Combined Dinner and Dance, 8/6 Dinner only and ~~5/- Dance~~ only:— Mr P.T. Taylor, Clutha, 3. The Mount, Malton; Mr B.R. ROLLS, 2, The Avenue, Norton; Mr Cyril Hornsey, 1. Vine Grove, Norton or at Messrs Soulby, Elston and Hawkesworth, Yorkersgate; Miss Diana Taylor, Easthorpe, Malton; Miss Brenda Holmes, 77. Commercial St, Norton or at Messrs Boots Chemists, Wheelgate, Malton; Mr S. Grice, Hillbree, Middlecave, Malton; Mr Tim Tate-Smith, 2. York Road or at the Mineral Water Factory, Horsemarket Road, Malton; Mrs Ena Smith, Market Place Malton (the passage above Sadler's Paper Shop).

We ask confidently for your support in making this year's Reunion an even bigger success than previous functions.

Yours Sincerely

DIANA P. TAYLOR

Hon. Secretary.
