Ryedale Folk Museum

On a rainy day in July, students from Year 9 visited Ryedale Folk Museum, to experience life during World War II.

Students were given an insight into daily life in the war, taking part in activities including a victory march, cooking and make-do and mend. Students also held discussions with World War II veterans on their experiences.

Despite the weather a fun day was had by all, many thanks to Ryedale Folk Museum and also the History department at school for organising this trip.

Students dress in 40's clothing and the girls wait for the boys to come home on the victory march.

MP visit

On Friday 13 July, Ann McIntosh MP visited school to talk with students in Years 7, 9 and Sixth Form. They covered current Parliament issues and how the system works.

Students enjoyed the insight, Many thanks to Ms McIntosh for taking the time to call in and see us.
